

ORDINANCES

Jennifer Richie, City Attorney, Waco
Riley Fletcher Seminar, Austin, Texas, 2020

WHAT IS AN ORDINANCE?

- Used to enact legislation
- State law requires an ordinance for certain actions
- May be used for administrative actions that are non-legislative
- Process for enactment of ordinances usually is more cumbersome than for resolutions

PROCEDURE FOR PASSAGE

- Governed by Chapter 52 of the Texas Local Government Code and City Charter
- Depends on type of city
- Home Rule City: Caption and Penalty must be published
- Charter may require multiple readings

- Who should be included in the process
- Benchmarking the ordinance
- Borrowing language from other cities' ordinances
- Always do your own research on the issue
- Draft, read, revise, pause, re-read

TERMS

Required

- Caption
- Ordaining Clause
- Penalty Provision
- Culpable Mental State
- The Enactments – what are you prohibiting, requiring, regulating?

Optional

- Effective Date
- “Whereas” Clauses
- Severability Clause
- Repealing Provision
- Savings Clause

STRICT LIABILITY

- Can dispense with culpable mental state
- Only if fine is under $500
- Most cities do this in General Provisions section of Code

PENALTY PROVISION

- Not to exceed:
 - $500 -- General fine for municipal ordinances
 - $2000 -- Ordinances re: fire safety, zoning, or public health and safety
 - $4000 -- Ordinances re: the dumping of refuse
- Per day of violation

EFFECTIVE DATE AND PUBLICATION

- Ordinances with penalties must be published
- These ordinances are not effective until prescribed time after publication
 - State law prescribes unless charter provision
 - Waco's charter makes penal ordinances effective 10 days after publication
- May have an effective date that is further out

SAVINGS CLAUSE

“That nothing in this ordinance shall be constructed to affect any suit or proceeding pending in any court, or any rights acquired, or liability incurred, or any cause or causes of action acquired or existing, under any act or prior ordinance; nor shall any legal right or remedy of any character be lost, impaired, or affected by this ordinance.”

GENERAL PROVISIONS

- Chapter at the beginning of the Code
- Can have:
 - Definitions, e.g. “City”
 - Rules of Construction, e.g. “Computation of time”
 - Catch all clauses, e.g. severability
 - Dispense with culpable mental state
- Safe Harbor

AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES, NOT EXCEPTIONS

It shall be unlawful for any person to park or stand a commercial vehicle ... upon any public street ... within any part of the city classified by the zoning ordinance of the city as a single-family residence district....

It is an affirmative defense to this section that the vehicles are:

1. In the act of loading or unloading passengers, freight, or merchandise;
2. Publicly owned or franchised emergency or utility vehicles carrying out official duties...

OTHER DRAFTING TIPS

- Avoid discretionary words
 - “Shall” not “May” or “Should”
 - Ordinances are not “guidelines”
- Avoid references to state law or other provisions of your code
- Try to think like a defense attorney or your worst actor
 - Loopholes
 - Side effects
 - Worst case scenarios
